

Application Form Impulse Boost Camp

Great that you want to take part in Impulse Boost Camp! We are looking forward to getting to know you.

In order to apply, please fill out this form and send it together with your CV to nele@ifzw-impulsstiftung.de.

First Name:

Last Name:

Email:

Gender:

Phone Number including country code:

Country of Residence:

Citizenship(s):

Do you need a visa to enter Germany:

Honestly speaking, how well do you master the English language?

☐ A1 ☐ A2 ☐ B1 ☐ B2 ☐ C1 ☐ C2

In approximately how many (similar) trainings or seminars outside of school/university have you participated before?

How did you find out about IBC?

Q1. In what way are you socially active in society? How do you identify yourself as a social change maker? (150-300 words)

Q2. What do you hope to learn at Impulse Boost Camp? Please state your motivation for your participation in the Camp. (150-300 words)

Q3. IBC is shaped by the active contribution of our participants. There will be workshop slots to share the best practices of your work, to present a case for a collective conflict-resolution session, to offer free-time activities, to share your favorite method or to host a conversation about a topic that is of great interest to you. Also, there are different tasks to be taken over by participants in order to maintain the well-being of the group and our space. How do you see yourself contributing to the seminar? (100-200 words)

Q4. How and where do you want to implement your freshly gained knowledge after the program? Which people or projects would profit from your participation? (100-250 words)

Please name 3 adjectives that describe your personality.

Please name the topics you work on or consider yourself to have an expertise on.

To which Sustainable Development Goal(s) does your work fit to?

Is there anything else you want us to know?

Please share links to website or social media channels of your projects and activities, if possible.